

BRAGG FARM SUGAR HOUSE

Catch a slasher film at the historic Malta Drive-In Theatre, a continuous operation since 1949 and celebrating its 75th anniversary this year! Located at 2785 State Route 9 in Malta, just one mile south of Northway exits 13S, the theatre is unmistakable with its large flashing marquee. Open from April through October, this iconic drive-in invites you to enjoy a movie under the stars. Admission is $12 for adults and $6 for children under 12, with a $5 permit for outside food, beverages, or coolers per car per night. The Malta Drive-In allows the use of generators and offers extra nights on request, making it a perfect spot for a thrilling Harvest Hosts adventure.

Since 1995, McDonald's Greenhouse & Corn Maze has been a beloved spot in the community, but come fall, it takes on a delightfully eerie transformation. Wander through our haunted corn maze if you dare, or explore the spooky pumpkin patch and shadowy wooded path. Enjoy spine-chilling hay rides and pedal tractors, bounce on the jumping pillow under the moonlight, and visit the ghostly petting zoo for some farm animal therapy with a haunted twist. Savor weekend donuts and cider from our food stand as you brave the autumnal frights. With fast responses, generator allowances, and extra nights upon request, McDonald's Greenhouse promises a hauntingly good time.
